

Security Advisory Council Charter

January 1, 2019

I. Purpose

The MRO Security Advisory Council (MRO Security Advisory Council) is an MRO Organizational Group that provides advice and counsel to MRO's Board of Directors (board), the board's Organizational Group Oversight Committee, staff, members and registered entities on cybersecurity, physical security, and control system security. The MRO Security Advisory Council increases outreach and awareness in these key areas.

II. Membership

Pursuant to Policy and Procedure 3 - Establishment, Responsibilities, and Procedures of Organizational Groups and MRO Representation on NERC Organizational Groups, membership on councils is based on experience and expertise. No more than two members of the MRO Security Advisory Council may be an employee of a single entity or affiliated entities. At least three sectors will be represented on the MRO Security Advisory Council. To the extent practicable, membership will reflect geographic diversity and balanced sector representation. MRO staff will solicit volunteers from MRO members.

Individuals with expertise and experience in the areas of cybersecurity, physical security, and control system security serve on the MRO Security Advisory Council

The MRO Security Advisory Council is comprised of 15 members. The Governance and Personnel Committee, with input from MRO staff, will recommend the members of the MRO Security Advisory Council to be appointed by board for vacant, expiring, or new terms beginning January 1, 2019. For the six new positions, two will have a one-year term, two will have a two-year term, and two will have a three-year term. Thereafter, all council members will have a three year term. Beginning in 2019, nominations for open positions on the MRO Security Advisory Council will be submitted to the MRO Security Advisory Council for review. The MRO Security Advisory Council, with input from MRO staff, will recommend the candidate(s) best suited for the open position(s) based on experience, expertise and geographic diversity to the board's Organizational Group Oversight Committee, which will appoint the members of the MRO Security Advisory Council.

The MRO Security Advisory Council will recommend a chair and vice chair to the Organizational Group Oversight Committee and the committee will appoint the chair and vice chair.
