

MRO VP Finance and Administration to Retire

June 3, 2019

Saint Paul, MN. Midwest Reliability Organization's Vice President Finance and Administration Sue Clarke announced her plans to retire on June 30, 2019. Clarke joined MRO in August 2007, and has served as the organization's Vice President of Finance and Administration for the past 12 years. "Sue has been an instrumental member of MRO's team and we will miss her knowledge, experience, and insight in many areas," said president and CEO Sara Patrick.

To help transition her duties, Clarke will continue to support the MRO Finance group on a part-time basis through September.

###

Midwest Reliability Organization (MRO) is a non-profit organization dedicated to ensuring the reliability and security of the bulk power system in the central region of North America, including parts of both the United States and Canada. MRO is one of seven regional entities in North America operating under authority from regulators in the United States through a delegation agreement with the North American Electric Reliability Corporation (NERC) and in Canada under similar arrangements. The primary focus of MRO is developing and ensuring compliance with reliability standards and assessing the grid's ability to meet the demands for electricity.